By: Senators Wiles of the 37th, Rogers of the 21st, Hill of the 32nd, Thompson of the 33rd and Stoner of the 6th

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Recognizing Cool Dreams, Inc.; and for other purposes.
- 2 WHEREAS, the historic Iditarod Sled Dog Race has been called the "Last Great Race on
- 3 Earth" and it is a tribute to Alaska's past, the route serving as a life-saving highway for the
- 4 children of Nome, Alaska, in need of medical attention in the 1920's diphtheria outbreak
- 5 when a serum to fight the disease was brought in by the intrepid dog mushers and their
- 6 faithful, hard-driving dogs; and
- 7 WHEREAS, the current race, which began in 1973, is the longest sled dog race in the world,
- 8 and it puts man and animal in some of the roughest, most beautiful terrain in the United
- 9 States; and
- 10 WHEREAS, teams comprising 16 dogs and their musher must cover over 1,150 miles of
- 11 jagged mountain ranges, frozen rivers, dense forests, and miles of windswept coast over a
- 12 period of 11 to 21 days, including temperatures far below zero, winds that can cause a
- 13 complete loss of visibility, long hours of darkness, and treacherous climbs; and
- 14 WHEREAS, having never set foot in Alaska before 1997, Georgian Bill Borden trained his
- 15 teammates for three years in the frigid cold of Alaska with the support of his wonderful wife
- 16 Brenda, and in 2002, Bill became the first Georgian to finish the Iditarod, in 14 days, four
- hours, ten minutes, and 14 seconds to become only the 540th person in the world to finish
- 18 the race; and
- 19 WHEREAS, during that life-changing experience Bill realized that his life rules of proper
- 20 planning, perseverance, and following his faith were what allowed him to be one of the select
- 21 few to finish the Iditarod; and

08 LC 95 0778

1 WHEREAS, in order to share these life rules with children, he and his wife founded Cool

- 2 Dreams, Inc., a not-for-profit organization dedicated to bringing to children his message that
- 3 through proper planning, perseverance, and faith any dream is possible; and
- 4 WHEREAS, since its inception Bill Borden's presentation has been experienced by over
- 5 300,000 people and changed the lives of children from coast to coast, bringing to life what
- 6 the determination and faith of one man with a supportive family from Georgia can do to
- 7 change the world one child at a time; and
- 8 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper for this body to recognize with particularity
- 9 the outstanding accomplishments of this extraordinary organization.
- 10 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
- join together to recognize Cool Dreams, Inc., for its extraordinary message and work with

- 13 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is hereby authorized and
- 14 directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Cool Dreams, Inc., and Bill
- 15 Borden.
